THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Over the five decades since its founding in 1969, the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) has earned international renown for its innovative academic programs, groundbreaking research and scholarship, and leading-edge patient care. In 2020-21, UAB has played a leading role in combatting COVID-19 nationally and globally, treating more than 4,400 COVID patients, administering over 200,000 vaccinations, and participating in a number of clinical trials for potential treatments and vaccines. At the same time, the University has continued making record-breaking strides in all pillars of its mission, despite the pandemic.

Last fall UAB achieved a fifth straight year of record enrollment (22,563) as well as record retention (86.4 percent), and a freshman class that was the most academically prepared ever, with an average ACT of 25.9 and an average high school GPA of 3.83. The student body is 64 percent female and 43 percent underrepresented, and 21 percent of undergraduates are first-generation college students. Insight into Diversity magazine, the oldest and largest diversity magazine and website in higher education, has named UAB a Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award recipient and Diversity Champion (among only 14 nationally) for four consecutive years.

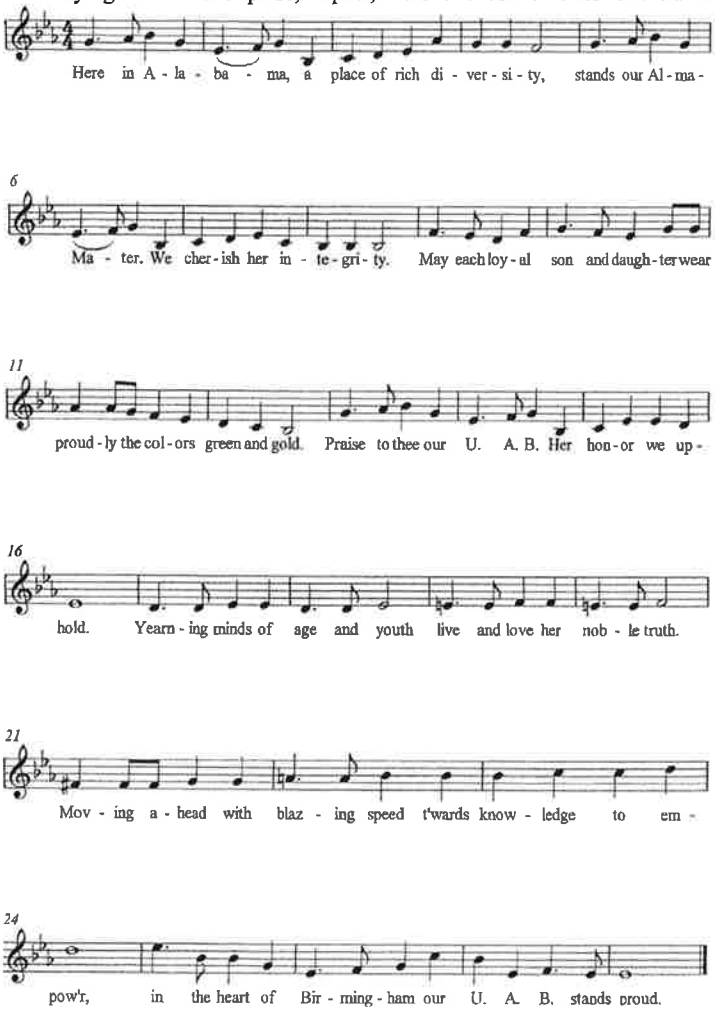

UAB continues to develop one-of-a-kind academic programs and research experiences that span the disciplines. Fall 2020 saw the launch of a new BS in cancer biology and PhD in neuro-engineering—both of which are the first such programs in the nation—as well as a new entrepreneurship major in the Collat School of Business. The University is currently implementing its new Signature Core Curriculum, a 21st century undergraduate curriculum that effectively equips students to think critically and collaborate on solutions to local and global challenges. In the 2021 U.S. News & World Report "Best Graduate Schools" rankings, UAB has 17 programs in the top 25, including a Master's in Health Administration program that ranks first in the nation.

Students and their faculty mentors are engaged in a robust research enterprise that is more competitive than ever. In FY2020, research awards reached a record $638 million, marking the most successful five-year period of research funding in the University's history, with an increase of $190 million (42 percent) from 2015 to 2020. Among public universities, UAB ranks 15th in federal research funding and 9th in funding from the National Institutes of Health (NIH), with eight School of Medicine departments ranked in top 15 nationally in NIH funding growth. This research is being translated into world-class patient care, as UAB—the nation's 11th largest hospital and 3rd largest public hospital—was again ranked by U.S. News & World Report as the best hospital in Alabama, with six specialties in the nation's top 25. UAB houses the state's only level 1 adult trauma center and the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center, the only National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center in Alabama.

With more than 23,000 employees and spanning over 100 city blocks, UAB is the largest single-site employer in Alabama, with a statewide economic impact of $7.1 billion annually. Forbes recently ranked UAB number one on its list of Best Large Employers (above the likes of Mayo Clinic, NASA and Google) and number four Best Employer for Diversity.

UAB ALMA MATER

The UAB Alma Mater was composed by Birmingham native David McNeeley in 2003. A competition was held, and a committee comprising UAB faculty, administrators, students, and alumni selected it from numerous submissions. The Alma Mater expresses the unifying sentiments of pride, respect, and cherished memories for the university.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The custom of wearing academic caps, gowns, and hoods can be traced to the twelfth century. At that time both men and women wore long, full, flowing robes. This mode of dress gradually changed so that by the end of the seventeenth century only legal and official personages wore gowns. However, certain guilds and universities established the tradition of wearing prescribed apparel. In the universities, the details of the dress distinguished different degrees of learning and the faculty. In the United States, as a result of our English heritage, caps and gowns have been used from colonial times, especially at our older universities such as Columbia (King's College), New York University, University of Pennsylvania, Bryn Mawr, Yale, and others. Around 1885 there was a widespread student movement to wear caps and gowns at commencement. The faculties approved this dignified graduation dress and soon adopted the custom of wearing gowns at academic ceremonies.

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission presented American institutions of higher learning the Intercollegiate Code. This code regulated the design of gowns and hoods as well as the colors and materials to be used. The code was subsequently adopted by more than 95 percent of U.S. colleges and universities. It has given America an impressive but simple method of signifying scholastic honors.

The code provides for three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree is made of green material and has long pointed sleeves. The gown for the master's degree is made with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The rear part of this oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. It is faced with velvet and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The color of the velvet trim may be black or the same color as the velvet which edges the gown.

The green oxford or mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, but only the doctor's cap may be made of velvet and have a gold tassel.

The hood is the most important and distinctive feature of the American code. An understanding of the system makes it possible to distinguish readily bachelor's, master's, and doctor's hoods and to recognize the university which gave the degree. The doctor's hood is four feet in length and made with a wide panel. The master's and bachelor's hoods are three and one-half and three feet in length, respectively. They are made of black cloth and are lined with silk in the official academic colors of the institution which conferred the degree. The hoods worn by graduates of The University of Alabama at Birmingham are lined in green silk with a gold chevron. The trim of all hoods is velvet, two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees, respectively. The color of the velvet trim indicates the discipline or faculty to which the degree pertains. Each discipline has been assigned a different color by the Intercollegiate Code. The following is a list of colors assigned to several of the disciplines within The University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Arts	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business	Drab	Optometry	Seafoam green
Dentistry	Lilac	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Engineering	Orange	Science	Gold-yellow
Fine Arts	Brown	Social Science	Citron
Medicine	Green

A few years ago some Ivy League colleges approved the wearing of gowns which were not black but the official school colors. This trend has expanded so that currently many colleges and universities have adopted special colored gowns. The members of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama system wear a green gown with gold trim at The University of Alabama at Birmingham academic ceremonies. Colored gowns worn by many faculty identify the doctoral degrees of many American and foreign universities.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The ceremonial academic mace appeared in European universities during the fourteenth century and represented the amalgamation of two much older staff-like devices of similar length and shape. These were the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace. Kings throughout history have carried scepters as insignia of the lawful authority of just rulers. The battle mace was first used by medieval princes as an effective hand weapon in combat.

In the fourteenth century, the royal scepter and the battle mace were combined to produce the ceremonial academic mace. It was carried before royalty, mayors of cities, and chief officers of the medieval universities.

In modern times, the mace is used on ceremonial occasions in the life of the university. In commencement exercises, the mace specifically indicates the authority of the university president to award degrees. The mace immediately precedes the presidential party in the ceremonial procession. For the Friday evening ceremony, the mace is carried by David A. Schneider, Ph.D., professor and vice-chair of the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Genetics and associate dean of Graduate Biomedical Sciences. He also serves as chair of the Biochemistry and Molecular Genetics Tenure and Promotions Committee and the Teaching Committee. He is a recipient of the 2019 UAB President's Award for Excellence in Teaching and the 2014 UAB Graduate Dean's Award for Excellence in Mentorship. Dr. Schneider's research includes characterizing trans-acting factors and enzymatic features that control synthesis of ribosomal RNA by RNA polymerase I as well as anti-cancer drug discovery, viral gene expression and cancer cell growth/proliferation. His research lab has maintained continuous, robust extramural support through the year 2026. For the Saturday ceremonies, the mace is carried by Robert M. Centor, M.D., Professor Emeritus in the Division of Internal Medicine in the Department of Medicine in the School of Medicine, the 2020 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. Dr. Centor served as associate dean and executive director of the Huntsville Regional Medical Campus from 2005-2017. He is one of the world's leading experts on the sore throat. His seminal work on Group A streptococcal infections as a cause of sore throat is known as the Centor score or Centor criteria in practice guidelines and decision aids for diagnostic purposes.

The UAB mace is fashioned in three metals: brass, bronze, and stainless steel. The use of these metals--especially the stainless steel--is intended to signify Birmingham's traditional role as an iron and steel producing center.

At the lower end of the mace are three medallions of enamel on copper. One medallion bears the image of the lamp of knowledge. Another bears the traditional symbol of the physician, the Caduceus (Aesculapius, Greco-Roman god of medicine, was embodied at the temple of Kos as a statue holding a serpent, a symbol of long life, healing, and knowledge. A staff and a second serpent were added later to form the Caduceus). The third medallion is the UAB logo in gold on a green enamel background with a red enamel glow on the collar to symbolize the molten metal characteristic of old Birmingham and its blast furnaces.

The UAB mace was commissioned, designed, and executed in 1989 by the noted Alabama sculptor, Cordray Parker, with the help of Heidi J. Bowman on the enameled medallions. In 2021, Jamey Worrell, Ph.D., professor of accounting in the Collat School of Business, handcrafted a new stand for the mace. He sourced lumber from felled trees on UAB's campus and around Birmingham, selecting wood that represents some of the university's best qualities: oak for strength, hickory for resiliency, elm for knowledge, and cherry for passion.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The mace was made possible through the generosity of the late Samuel B. Barker, Ph.D., and his late wife, Justine. Dr. Barker, distinguished professor emeritus and dean emeritus of UAB, was the first dean of the UAB Graduate School and a leading patron of the arts in Birmingham

THE ACADEMIC GONFALONS

The academic gonfalons feature the UAB logo, the university seal and the name of the schools in white on a background of black, in keeping with the traditional black academic gowns worn by students and faculty. Each gonfalon also features a border of the school's academic color, which is repeated across the entire back of the banner. The exception is the UAB gonfalon, which features white letters on a green background, bordered and backed in gold, denoting UAB's official colors.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

HONORS DESIGNATIONS

The University of Alabama at Birmingham awards degrees with special designations to students who have achieved meritorious scholastic standing. Honor designations for undergraduates are based on grades reported prior to the completion of spring semester and may not reflect all earned honors. The designations are as follows:

Designation	Grade Point Average (A=4.00)
Summa Cum Laude	3.90 - 4.00
Magna Cum Laude	3.70 - 3.89
Cum Laude	3.50 - 3.69

An undergraduate student graduating with Summa, Magna, or Cum Laude honors is also accorded the privilege of wearing a gold honors cord.

The UAB Honors College brings together high-achieving intellectually curious students from all majors to form a close-knit community of emerging scholars. Honors students may follow a personalized curriculum or specialize in global and community leadership (GCL), science and technology (STH), or interdisciplinary arts and sciences (UHP). Honors students are recognized with "distinguished honors" for earning 18 hours of honors credit and "high distinguished honors" for 30 or more hours of honors credits. Students completing honors requirements wear a white cord and a UAB Honors College medallion.

School of Dentistry – The "With Honors" designation indicates at least a B average, completion of an approved plan of study and research, and completion of a relevant thesis.

Schools of Medicine and Optometry – Honors are given to those in the upper ten percent of their class based on overall grade point average. The designation Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude are not routinely awarded. Any graduate receiving such a designation is outstanding in ability and performance.

Veterans who have served in the United States Armed Forces wear a red, white and blue cord.

UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Commencement

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2021
AND
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 2021
BARTOW ARENA
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

TO OUR GUESTS

Welcome to the Fall 2021 Commencement of The University of Alabama at Birmingham. The pageantry of today's ceremony is the culmination and recognition of years of study, preparation, and achievement of our 82nd class of graduates. We hope you find the ceremony both meaningful and memorable, as it reflects the combined efforts of the faculty, the staff, and, of course, our students and their families.

Commencement begins with the traditional academic procession. The graduates are led into Bartow Arena by marshals who are faculty members in their respective college and schools. The faculty, headed by a distinguished group of emeriti professors, follow in order of academic rank and seniority. The last group to enter is the platform party led by the UAB Academic Mace (see page 12). For the Friday evening ceremony, the mace is carried by Steven N. Austad, Ph.D., Distinguished Professor and Chair of the Department of Biology. He is a recipient of the 2020 Caroline P. and Charles W. Ireland Prize for Scholarly Distinction. Dr. Austad also co-directs one of only eight Nathan Shock Centers of Excellence in the nation funded by the National Institute on Aging. Dr. Austad's research includes mitochondrial function, protein stability, and stress resistance as they affect aging. One of his studies involves clams that live over 500 years as models for healthy aging. An interesting offshoot of that study is that these long-lived clams may contain chemicals that could help prevent or treat Alzheimer's disease and other conditions caused by unwanted aggregations of misfolded proteins. His lab also investigates why such diseases and conditions often affect one sex more than the other. For the Saturday morning ceremony, the mace is carried by Sylvie Mrug, Ph.D., University Professor and Chair of the Department of Psychology. She is the recipient of the 2021 Caroline P. and Charles W. Ireland Prize for Scholarly Distinction. She was the recipient of the 2018 UAB Graduate Dean's Award for Excellence in Mentorship and the 2012 President's Award for Excellence in Teaching. Dr. Mrug's research examines the interplay of risk and protective factors in the development of behavioral and emotional problems in adolescence, including antisocial behavior, substance use, depression and anxiety with specific focus on the effects of violence exposure and peer influences in conjunction with other individual and contextual risk factors, such as pubertal timing, temperament, stress reactivity, parental practices, and broader influences of schools and neighborhoods. For the Saturday afternoon ceremony, the mace is carried by Gregg H. Gilbert, DDS, MBA, the 2019 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. Dr. Gilbert serves as Distinguished Professor and Chair in the UAB Department of Clinical and Community Sciences in the School of Dentistry. Dr. Gilbert secured a $66M grant, the largest in UAB history, from the National Institutes of Health to create The National Dental Practice-Based Research Network that includes six regional centers and more than 6,000 practitioners who are improving each step of the research process by generating new ideas, developing studies, performing field testing, collecting data and then presenting and publishing their findings—a hallmark of the network's success. Next are Ray L. Watts, M.D., President of The University of Alabama at Birmingham, members of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama System, and representatives from The University of Alabama System's Office. Other persons in the platform party include distinguished guests, as well as UAB senior administration and deans.

The audience is asked to stand as the procession enters the arena and to remain standing through the singing of the National Anthem.

President Watts closes the ceremony after all degrees have been awarded and the UAB Alma Mater has been sung. The audience is asked to stand and to remain standing for the recessional of the platform party. Family and friends are asked to meet the new alumni outside of Bartow Arena; they will not be allowed on the arena floor.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Over the five decades since its founding in 1969, the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) has earned international renown for its innovative academic programs, groundbreaking research and scholarship, and leading-edge patient care. Throughout the global pandemic, UAB has played a leading role in combatting COVID-19 nationally and globally, treating more than 5,400 COVID patients, administering more than 266,000 vaccinations, and participating in a number of clinical trials for potential treatments and vaccines. At the same time, the university has continued making record-breaking strides in all pillars of its mission, despite the pandemic.

This fall UAB enrolled the largest and most diverse freshman class in university history: 2,415 students, with 45.4 percent coming from underrepresented groups and 28 percent of the class the first in their families to go to college. The average ACT score for first-time freshmen was 26.5 and the average GPA was 3.82. For the fourth straight year, Insight into Diversity magazine named UAB one of its Diversity Champions (among only 14 universities nationally). A record 80 percent of freshmen lived on campus in fall 2021. The Honors College also reported record total enrollment of 2,590 students.

UAB is currently implementing its new Signature Core Curriculum, now known as Blazer Core, a 21st century undergraduate curriculum focused on experiential learning in the real world that effectively equips students to think critically and collaborate on solutions to local and global challenges. In the 2022 U.S. News & World Report "Best Graduate Schools" rankings, UAB has 16 programs in the top 25, including a Master's in Health Administration program that ranks first in the nation.

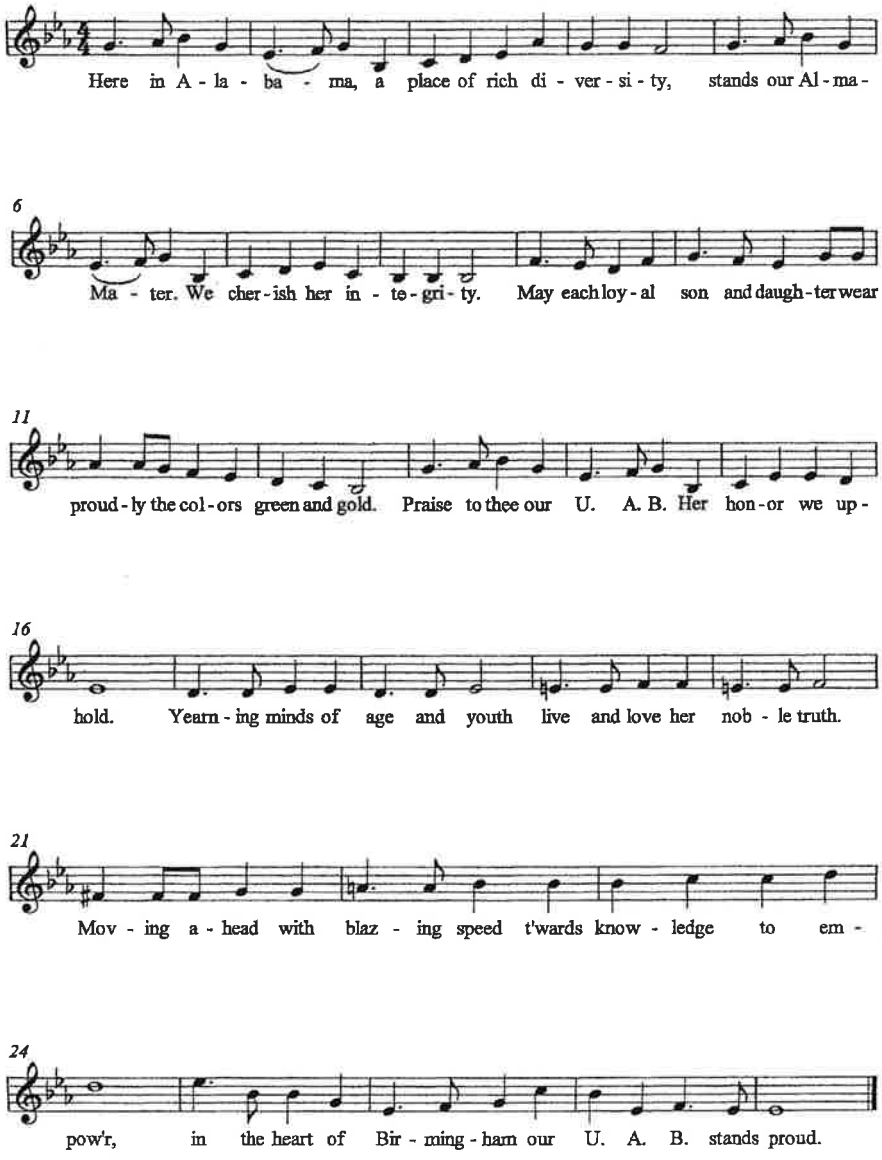

Students and their faculty mentors are engaged in a robust research enterprise that is more competitive than ever. In FY2021, research awards surpassed $838 million, marking the most successful five-year period of research funding in the university's history, with an increase of $385 million (85 percent) from 2016 to 2021. Among public universities, UAB ranks 15th in federal research funding and 8th in funding from the National Institutes of Health (NIH), with all UAB health-related schools ranked among the top 10 in NIH funding among public universities. The School of Medicine will be even more competitive thanks to the single largest philanthropic commitment in university history, a $100-million investment announced in fall 2021 that establishes the UAB Marnix E. Heersink School of Medicine.

This research is being translated into world-class patient care, as UAB — the nation's 11th largest hospital and fourth largest public hospital — was again ranked by U.S. News & World Report as the best hospital in Alabama, with eight adult specialties ranked among the nation's best. UAB Hospital earned Magnet Designation for Nursing Excellence for the fifth straight time, among only 21 hospitals worldwide to achieve this recognition. UAB houses the state's only level 1 adult trauma center and the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center, the only National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center in Alabama.

With more than 23,000 employees and spanning 100 city blocks, UAB is the largest single-site employer in Alabama, with a statewide economic impact of $7.1 billion annually. Forbes recently ranked UAB number one on its list of Best Large Employers (above the likes of Mayo Clinic, NASA and Google) and the Best Employer for Diversity among colleges and universities.

UAB ALMA MATER

The UAB Alma Mater was composed by Birmingham native David McNeeley in 2003. A competition was held, and a committee comprising UAB faculty, administrators, students, and alumni selected it from numerous submissions. The Alma Mater expresses the unifying sentiments of pride, respect, and cherished memories for the university.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The custom of wearing academic caps, gowns, and hoods can be traced to the twelfth century. At that time both men and women wore long, full, flowing robes. This mode of dress gradually changed so that by the end of the seventeenth century only legal and official personages wore gowns. However, certain guilds and universities established the tradition of wearing prescribed apparel. In the universities, the details of the dress distinguished different degrees of learning and the faculty. In the United States, as a result of our English heritage, caps and gowns have been used from colonial times, especially at our older universities such as Columbia (King's College), New York University, University of Pennsylvania, Bryn Mawr, Yale, and others. Around 1885 there was a widespread student movement to wear caps and gowns at commencement. The faculties approved this dignified graduation dress and soon adopted the custom of wearing gowns at academic ceremonies.

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission presented American institutions of higher learning the Intercollegiate Code. This code regulated the design of gowns and hoods as well as the colors and materials to be used. The code was subsequently adopted by more than 95 percent of U.S. colleges and universities. It has given America an impressive but simple method of signifying scholastic honors.

The code provides for three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree is made of green material and has long pointed sleeves. The gown for the master's degree is made with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The rear part of this oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. It is faced with velvet and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The color of the velvet trim may be black or the same color as the velvet which edges the gown.

The green oxford or mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, but only the doctor's cap may be made of velvet and have a gold tassel.

The hood is the most important and distinctive feature of the American code. An understanding of the system makes it possible to distinguish readily bachelor's, master's, and doctor's hoods and to recognize the university which gave the degree. The doctor's hood is four feet in length and made with a wide panel. The master's and bachelor's hoods are three and one-half and three feet in length, respectively. They are made of black cloth and are lined with silk in the official academic colors of the institution which conferred the degree. The hoods worn by graduates of The University of Alabama at Birmingham are lined in green silk with a gold chevron. The trim of all hoods is velvet, two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees, respectively. The color of the velvet trim indicates the discipline or faculty to which the degree pertains. Each discipline has been assigned a different color by the Intercollegiate Code. The following is a list of colors assigned to several of the disciplines within The University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Arts	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business	Drab	Optometry	Seafoam green
Dentistry	Lilac	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Engineering	Orange	Science	Gold-yellow
Fine Arts	Brown	Social Science	Citron
Medicine	Green

A few years ago some Ivy League colleges approved the wearing of gowns which were not black but the official school colors. This trend has expanded so that currently many colleges and universities have adopted special colored gowns. The members of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama system wear a green gown with gold trim at The University of Alabama at Birmingham academic ceremonies. Colored gowns worn by many faculty identify the doctoral degrees of many American and foreign universities.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The ceremonial academic mace appeared in European universities during the fourteenth century and represented the amalgamation of two much older staff-like devices of similar length and shape. These were the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace. Kings throughout history have carried scepters as insignia of the lawful authority of just rulers. The battle mace was first used by medieval princes as an effective hand weapon in combat.

In the fourteenth century, the royal scepter and the battle mace were combined to produce the ceremonial academic mace. It was carried before royalty, mayors of cities, and chief officers of the medieval universities.

In modern times, the mace is used on ceremonial occasions in the life of the university. In commencement exercises, the mace specifically indicates the authority of the university president to award degrees. The mace immediately precedes the presidential party in the ceremonial procession. For the Friday evening ceremony, the mace is carried by Steven N. Austad, Ph.D., Distinguished Professor and Chair of the Department of Biology. He is a recipient of the 2020 Caroline P. and Charles W. Ireland Prize for Scholarly Distinction. Dr. Austad also co-directs one of only eight Nathan Shock Centers of Excellence in the nation funded by the National Institute on Aging. Dr. Austad's research includes mitochondrial function, protein stability, and stress resistance as they affect aging. One of his studies involves clams that live over 500 years as models for healthy aging. An interesting offshoot of that study is that these long-lived clams may contain chemicals that could help prevent or treat Alzheimer's disease and other conditions caused by unwanted aggregations of misfolded proteins. His lab also investigates why such diseases and conditions often affect one sex more than the other. For the Saturday morning ceremony, the mace is carried by Sylvie Mrug, Ph.D., University Professor and Chair of the Department of Psychology. She is the recipient of the 2021 Caroline P. and Charles W. Ireland Prize for Scholarly Distinction. She was the recipient of the 2018 UAB Graduate Dean's Award for Excellence in Mentorship and the 2012 President's Award for Excellence in Teaching. Dr. Mrug's research examines the interplay of risk and protective factors in the development of behavioral and emotional problems in adolescence, including antisocial behavior, substance use, depression and anxiety with specific focus on the effectsof violence exposure and peer influences in conjunction with other individual and contextual risk factors, such as pubertal timing, temperament, stress reactivity, parental practices, and broader influences of schools and neighborhoods. For the Saturday afternoon ceremony, the mace is carried by Gregg H. Gilbert, DDS, MBA, the 2019 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. Dr. Gilbert serves as Distinguished Professor and Chair in the UAB Department of Clinical and Community Sciences in the School of Dentistry. Dr. Gilbert secured a $66M grant, the largest in UAB history, from the National Institutes of Health to create The National Dental Practice-Based Research Network that includes six regional centers and more than 6,000 practitioners who are improving each step of the research process by generating new ideas, developing studies, performing field testing, collecting data and then presenting and publishing their findings—a hallmark of the network's success.

The UAB mace is fashioned in three metals: brass, bronze, and stainless steel. The use of these metals--especially the stainless steel--is intended to signify Birmingham's traditional role as an iron and steel producing center.

At the lower end of the mace are three medallions of enamel on copper. One medallion bears the image of the lamp of knowledge. Another bears the traditional symbol of the physician, the Caduceus (Aesculapius, Greco-Roman god of medicine, was embodied at the temple of Kos as a statue holding a serpent, a symbol of long life, healing, and knowledge. A staff and a second serpent were added later to form the Caduceus). The third medallion is the UAB logo in gold on a green enamel background with a red enamel glow on the collar to symbolize the molten metal characteristic of old Birmingham and its blast furnaces.

The UAB mace was commissioned, designed, and executed in 1989 by the noted Alabama sculptor, Cordray Parker, with the help of Heidi J. Bowman on the enameled medallions. In 2021, Jamey Worrell, Ph.D., professor of accounting in the Collat School of Business, handcrafted a new stand for the mace. He sourced lumber from felled trees on UAB's campus and around Birmingham, selecting wood that represents some of the university's best qualities: oak for strength, hickory for resiliency, elm for knowledge, and cherry for passion.

The mace was made possible through the generosity of the late Samuel B. Barker, Ph.D., and his late wife, Justine. Dr. Barker, distinguished professor emeritus and dean emeritus of UAB, was the first dean of the UAB Graduate School and a leading patron of the arts in Birmingham

The academic gonfalons feature the UAB logo, the university seal and the name of the schools in white on a background of black, in keeping with the traditional black academic gowns worn by students and faculty. Each gonfalon also features a border of the school's academic color, which is repeated across the entire back of the banner. The exception is the UAB gonfalon, which features white letters on a green background, bordered and backed in gold, denoting UAB's official colors.

UAB THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Dear UAB Graduate,

What an incredible day – you are now an official University of Alabama at Birmingham graduate! I hope you celebrate BIG! On behalf of the UAB National Alumni Society, I want to personally congratulate you on your remarkable achievement and welcome you to the UAB NAS. You join more than 150,000 graduates around the globe and are an important member of our growing Alumni Family.

Today marks an important watershed moment – one that you will remember for years to come. As you reflect back to this time, you will likely remember how COVID impacted your studies, how you witnessed private industry space travel, UAB's storybook return of our beloved football program, or our American Athletic Conference invitation. However, the one thing that will be forever etched in your memories, will be the day you graduated from UAB.

Engage with us on our social media platforms Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter (@uabalumni). This is an easy way to gain insight, network, and be informed on all things UAB. I also encourage you to "Be Seen In Green," stay connected with all the ways our awesome UAB Alums impact our world, and remain "Forever Faithful, Forever Loyal." On a personal note, I would also encourage you to remember to continue learning – it's a lifetime mission and who knows, your travels may lead you back to UAB for further learning opportunities. To learn about upcoming events and ways to further engage, check out our website at alumni.uab.edu.

Remember that you wherever you go, and however you apply yourself in the new world ahead of you, you will always carry UAB with you. Your studies and experiences while at UAB will contribute to your future achievements and the footprints you create in your professional journey. We encourage you to stay connected, take advantage of what our Alumni Society has to offer, and continue networking with fellow graduates. We want to share in your accomplishments! Finally, you may remember that in 2019, we changed our UAB National Alumni Society dues structure. The good news is that you are no longer required to pay dues, or "sign up," to "belong" – you are already "IN!"

I look forward to seeing you at events and/or games!

Go Blazers,

Tammi M. Thomas

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

HONORS DESIGNATIONS

The University of Alabama at Birmingham awards degrees with special designations to students who have achieved meritorious scholastic standing. Honor designations for undergraduates are based on grades reported prior to the completion of spring semester and may not reflect all earned honors. The designations are as follows:

Designation	Grade Point Average (A=4.00)
Summa Cum Laude	3.90 - 4.00
Magna Cum Laude	3.70 - 3.89
Cum Laude	3.50 - 3.69

An undergraduate student graduating with Summa, Magna, or Cum Laude honors is also accorded the privilege of wearing a gold honors cord.

The UAB Honors College brings together high-achieving intellectually curious students from all majors to form a close-knit community of emerging scholars. Honors students may follow a personalized curriculum or specialize in global and community leadership (GCL), science and technology (STH), or interdisciplinary arts and sciences (UHP). Honors students are recognized with "distinguished honors" for earning 18 hours of honors credit and "high distinguished honors" for 30 or more hours of honors credits. Students completing honors requirements wear a white cord and a UAB Honors College medallion.

School of Dentistry – The "With Honors" designation indicates at least a B average, completion of an approved plan of study and research, and completion of a relevant thesis.

Schools of Medicine and Optometry – Honors are given to those in the upper ten percent of their class based on overall grade point average. The designation Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude are not routinely awarded. Any graduate receiving such a designation is outstanding in ability and performance.

Veterans who have served in the United States Armed Forces wear a red, white and blue cord.

ACADEMIC

This is a list of candidates for graduation unless otherwise noted, prepared before final grades were reported, and inclusion therein does not constitute evidence of graduation.

TO OUR GUESTS

Welcome to the Spring 2022 Commencement of The University of Alabama at Birmingham. The pageantry of today's ceremony is the culmination and recognition of years of study, preparation, and achievement of our 82nd class of graduates. We hope you find the ceremony both meaningful and memorable, as it reflects the combined efforts of the faculty, the staff, and, of course, our students and their families.

Commencement begins with the traditional academic procession. The graduates are led into Bartow Arena by marshals who are faculty members in their respective college and schools. The faculty, headed by a distinguished group of emeriti professors, follow in order of academic rank and seniority. The last group to enter is the platform party led by the UAB Academic Mace (see page 12). For the Friday evening ceremony, the mace is carried by Robin A. J. Lester, Ph.D., Professor in the Department of Neurobiology. He is a recipient of the 2021 Ellen Gregg Ingalls/UAB National Alumni Society Award for Lifetime Achievement in Teaching. Dr. Lester has a longstanding interest in how the regulation of postsynaptic receptor ion channels contribute to synaptic transmission and plasticity. During his graduate studies, he contributed to studies that first demonstrated a synaptic role for the NMDA glutamate receptor and described a mechanism for its role in the induction of long-term potentiation, a major form of synaptic plasticity in the hippocampus. Subsequently, as an independent investigator, Dr. Lester focused his efforts on unmasking the physiological roles of nicotinic acetylcholine receptors in the brain, and how exposure to nicotine can promote persistent changes that may contribute to nicotine dependence. Over the last ten years, he has devoted the majority of his time towards teaching a variety of neuroscience/neuroanatomy topics to undergraduate, graduate, medical, dental and optometry students. For the Saturday ceremonies, the mace is carried by Smita Bhatia, M.D., MPH, Distinguished Professor in the Department of Pediatrics in the UAB Marnix E. Heersink School of Medicine, the 2022 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. Dr. Bhatia is the holder of the Gay and Bew White Endowed Professor in Pediatric Oncology, Director of the Institute for Cancer Outcomes and Survivorship, as well as the Vice Chair for Outcomes in the Department of Pediatrics and Senior Advisor for Cancer Outcomes Research at the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center at UAB. She is an internationally renowned leader in cancer survivorship and outcomes research and has been continually funded by the NIH and by the Leukemia Lymphoma Society since 2000. She has also received funding from the Dept. of Defense, St. Baldrick's Foundation, V Foundation and ASCO. Next are Ray L. Watts, M.D., President of The University of Alabama at Birmingham, members of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama System, and representatives from The University of Alabama System's Office. Other persons in the platform party include distinguished guests, as well as UAB senior administration and deans.

The audience is asked to stand as the procession enters the arena and to remain standing through the singing of the National Anthem.

President Watts closes the ceremony after all degrees have been awarded and the UAB Alma Mater has been sung. The audience is asked to stand and to remain standing for the recessional of the platform party. Family and friends are asked to meet the new alumni outside of Bartow Arena; they will not be allowed on the arena floor.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Over the five decades since its founding in 1969, the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) has earned international renown for its innovative academic programs, groundbreaking research and scholarship, and leading-edge patient care. Throughout the global pandemic, UAB has played a leading role in combatting COVID-19 nationally and globally, treating more than 7,000 COVID patients, administering more than 271,000 vaccinations, and participating in a number of clinical trials for potential treatments and vaccines. At the same time, the university has continued making record-breaking strides in all pillars of its mission, despite the pandemic.

In fall 2021, UAB enrolled the largest and most diverse freshman class in university history: 2,415 students, with 45.4 percent coming from underrepresented groups and 28 percent of the class the first in their families to go to college. The average ACT score for first-time freshmen was 26.5 and the average GPA was 3.82. A record 80 percent of freshmen lived on campus in fall 2021. The Honors College also reported record total enrollment of 2,590 students.

UAB is currently implementing its new Signature Core Curriculum, now known as Blazer Core, a 21st century undergraduate curriculum focused on experiential learning in the real world that effectively equips students to think critically and collaborate on solutions to local and global challenges. In the 2022 U.S. News & World Report "Best Graduate Schools" rankings, UAB has 16 programs in the top 25, including a Master's in Health Administration program that ranks first in the nation.

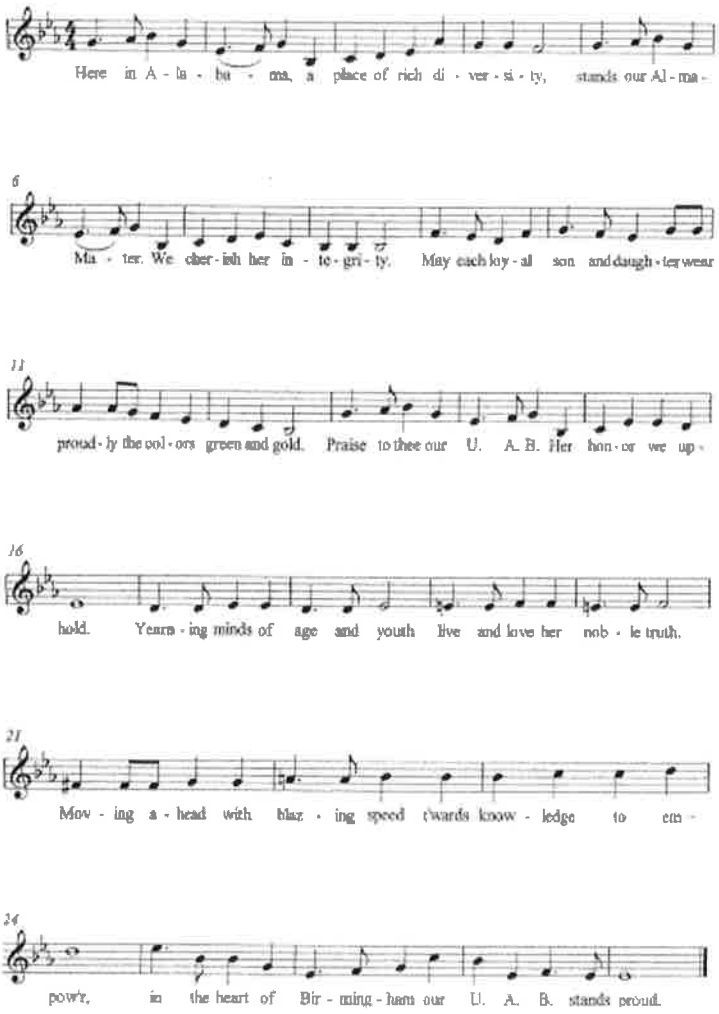

Students and their faculty mentors are engaged in a robust research enterprise that is more competitive than ever. In FY2021, research awards surpassed $648 million, marking the most successful five-year period of research funding in the university's history, with an increase of $196 million (43 percent) over that span. Among public universities, UAB ranks 17th in federal research funding and 11th in funding from the National Institutes of Health (NIH), with all UAB health-related schools ranked among the top 12 in NIH funding among public universities. The School of Medicine will be even more competitive thanks to the single largest philanthropic commitment in university history, a $100-million investment announced in fall 2021 that establishes the UAB Marnix E. Heersink School of Medicine.

This research is being translated into world-class patient care, as UAB — the nation's eighth largest hospital — was again ranked by U.S. News & World Report as the best hospital in Alabama, with eight adult specialties ranked among the nation's best. UAB Hospital earned Magnet Designation for Nursing Excellence for the fifth straight time, among only 21 hospitals worldwide to achieve this recognition. UAB houses the state's only level 1 adult trauma center and level 1 geriatric emergency department, as well as the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center, the only National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center in Alabama.

With more than 26,000 employees and spanning 100 city blocks, UAB is the largest single-site employer in Alabama, with a statewide economic impact of $7.1 billion annually. Forbes recently ranked UAB number one on its list of Best Large Employers (above the likes of Mayo Clinic, NASA and Google) and the Best Employer for Diversity among colleges and universities. And for the fourth straight year, Insight into Diversity magazine named UAB one of its Diversity Champions (among only 14 universities nationally).

UAB ALMA MATER

The UAB Alma Mater was composed by Birmingham native David McNeeley in 2003. A competition was held, and a committee comprising UAB faculty, administrators, students, and alumni selected it from numerous submissions. The Alma Mater expresses the unifying sentiments of pride, respect, and cherished memories for the university.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The custom of wearing academic caps, gowns, and hoods can be traced to the twelfth century. At that time both men and women wore long, full, flowing robes. This mode of dress gradually changed so that by the end of the seventeenth century only legal and official personages wore gowns. However, certain guilds and universities established the tradition of wearing prescribed apparel. In the universities, the details of the dress distinguished different degrees of learning and the faculty. In the United States, as a result of our English heritage, caps and gowns have been used from colonial times, especially at our older universities such as Columbia (King's College), New York University, University of Pennsylvania, Bryn Mawr, Yale, and others. Around 1885 there was a widespread student movement to wear caps and gowns at commencement. The faculties approved this dignified graduation dress and soon adopted the custom of wearing gowns at academic ceremonies.

In 1895, the Intercollegiate Commission presented American institutions of higher learning the Intercollegiate Code. This code regulated the design of gowns and hoods as well as the colors and materials to be used. The code was subsequently adopted by more than 95 percent of U.S. colleges and universities. It has given America an impressive but simple method of signifying scholastic honors.

The code provides for three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree is made of green material and has long pointed sleeves. The gown for the master's degree is made with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The rear part of this oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The gown for the doctor's degree has bell-shaped sleeves. It is faced with velvet and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The color of the velvet trim may be black or the same color as the velvet which edges the gown.

The green oxford or mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, but only the doctor's cap may be made of velvet and have a gold tassel.

The hood is the most important and distinctive feature of the American code. An understanding of the system makes it possible to distinguish readily bachelor's, master's, and doctor's hoods and to recognize the university which gave the degree. The doctor's hood is four feet in length and made with a wide panel. The master's and bachelor's hoods are three and one-half and three feet in length, respectively. They are made of black cloth and are lined with silk in the official academic colors of the institution which conferred the degree. The hoods worn by graduates of The University of Alabama at Birmingham are lined in green silk with a gold chevron. The trim of all hoods is velvet, two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for bachelor's, master's, and doctor's degrees, respectively. The color of the velvet trim indicates the discipline or faculty to which the degree pertains. Each discipline has been assigned a different color by the Intercollegiate Code. The following is a list of colors assigned to several of the disciplines within The University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Arts	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business	Drab	Optometry	Seafoam green
Dentistry	Lilac	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Engineering	Orange	Science	Gold-yellow
Fine Arts	Brown	Social Science	Citron
Medicine	Green

A few years ago some Ivy League colleges approved the wearing of gowns which were not black but the official school colors. This trend has expanded so that currently many colleges and universities have adopted special colored gowns. The members of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama system wear a green gown with gold trim at The University of Alabama at Birmingham academic ceremonies. Colored gowns worn by many faculty identify the doctoral degrees of many American and foreign universities.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The ceremonial academic mace appeared in European universities during the fourteenth century and represented the amalgamation of two much older staff-like devices of similar length and shape. These were the regal scepter and the medieval battle mace. Kings throughout history have carried scepters as insignia of the lawful authority of just rulers. The battle mace was first used by medieval princes as an effective hand weapon in combat.

In the fourteenth century, the royal scepter and the battle mace were combined to produce the ceremonial academic mace. It was carried before royalty, mayors of cities, and chief officers of the medieval universities.

In modern times, the mace is used on ceremonial occasions in the life of the university. In commencement exercises, the mace specifically indicates the authority of the university president to award degrees. The mace immediately precedes the presidential party in the ceremonial procession. For the Friday evening ceremony, the mace is carried by Robin A. J. Lester, Ph.D., Professor in the Department of Neurobiology. He is a recipient of the 2021 Ellen Gregg Ingalls/UAB National Alumni Society Award for Lifetime Achievement in Teaching. Dr. Lester has a longstanding interest in how the regulation of postsynaptic receptor ion channels contribute to synaptic transmission and plasticity. During his graduate studies, he contributed to studies that first demonstrated a synaptic role for the NMDA glutamate receptor and described a mechanism for its role in the induction of long-term potentiation, a major form of synaptic plasticity in the hippocampus. Subsequently, as an independent investigator, Dr. Lester focused his efforts on unmasking the physiological roles of nicotinic acetylcholine receptors in the brain, and how exposure to nicotine can promote persistent changes that may contribute to nicotine dependence. Over the last ten years, he has devoted the majority of his time towards teaching a variety of neuroscience/neuroanatomy topics to undergraduate, graduate, medical, dental and optometry students. For the Saturday ceremonies, the mace is carried by Smita Bhatia, M.D., MPH, Distinguished Professor in the Department of Pediatrics in the UAB Marnix E. Heersink School of Medicine, the 2022 Distinguished Faculty Lecturer. Dr. Bhatia is the holder of the Gay and Bew White Endowed Professor in Pediatric Oncology, Director of the Institute for Cancer Outcomes and Survivorship, as well as the Vice Chair for Outcomes in the Department of Pediatrics and Senior Advisor for Cancer Outcomes Research at the O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center at UAB. She is an internationally renowned leader in cancer survivorship and outcomes research and has been continually funded by the NIH and by the Leukemia Lymphoma Society since 2000. She has also received funding from the Dept. of Defense, St. Baldrick's Foundation, V Foundation and ASCO.

The UAB mace is fashioned in three metals: brass, bronze, and stainless steel. The use of these metals--especially the stainless steel--is intended to signify Birmingham's traditional role as an iron and steel producing center.

At the lower end of the mace are three medallions of enamel on copper. One medallion bears the image of the lamp of knowledge. Another bears the traditional symbol of the physician, the Caduceus (Aesculapius, Greco-Roman god of medicine, was embodied at the temple of Kos as a statue holding a serpent, a symbol of long life, healing, and knowledge. A staff and a second serpent were added later to form the Caduceus). The third medallion is the UAB logo in gold on a green enamel background with a red enamel glow on the collar to symbolize the molten metal characteristic of old Birmingham and its blast furnaces.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The UAB mace was commissioned, designed, and executed in 1989 by the noted Alabama sculptor, Cordray Parker, with the help of Heidi J. Bowman on the enameled medallions. In 2021, Jamey Worrell, Ph.D., professor of accounting in the Collat School of Business, handcrafted a new stand for the mace. He sourced lumber from felled trees on UAB's campus and around Birmingham, selecting wood that represents some of the university's best qualities: oak for strength, hickory for resiliency, elm for knowledge, and cherry for passion.

The mace was made possible through the generosity of the late Samuel B. Barker, Ph.D., and his late wife, Justine. Dr. Barker, distinguished professor emeritus and dean emeritus of UAB, was the first dean of the UAB Graduate School and a leading patron of the arts in Birmingham

The academic gonfalons feature the UAB logo, the university seal and the name of the schools in white on a background of black, in keeping with the traditional black academic gowns worn by students and faculty. Each gonfalon also features a border of the school's academic color, which is repeated across the entire back of the banner. The exception is the UAB gonfalon, which features white letters on a green background, bordered and backed in gold, denoting UAB's official colors.

2022 RECIPIENT OF THE UAB PRESIDENT'S MEDAL

M. Miller Gorrie, Chairman of Brasfield & Gorrie, LLC

Citation Excerpts Read by President Ray L. Watts, M.D.

M. Miller Gorrie is among the most successful and widely respected businessmen in Alabama and the Southeast. Under his leadership, Brasfield & Gorrie has evolved into one of the nation's top domestic general building contractors servicing clients throughout the United States in 14 different market sectors and 12 offices.

Gorrie was born in Birmingham to Magnus James "M.J." and Margaret Miller Gorrie. In 1943, IBM transferred his father to New York, but the family moved back to Birmingham a few years later. Gorrie graduated from Shades Valley High School. He earned money from a paper route and later from summer construction jobs, which he saved and invested in IBM stock, a decision that would provide the nest egg to finance his business a decade later.

Gorrie graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering and thereafter served. in the U.S. Navy's Civil Engineering Corps. He returned home in 1960, worked in various areas of the building industry, and in 1964 purchased the construction assets of Thomas C. Brasfield, who had begun a small construction company in Birmingham in 1921. Gorrie operated the company under the name of Thomas C. Brasfield for three years before deciding to change the name. Gorrie was so closely identified with the company by this point but chose not to drop the Brasfield name, believing the business and the name still meant a great deal to the Brasfield family. So, even though Brasfield was never directly associated with Gorrie's company, the new name became Brasfield & Gorrie.

Under Gorrie's leadership, the company grew steadily throughout the 1960s and 70s with the construction of small office buildings, schools, churches, industrial plants, and hospitals. In 1977, Gorrie expanded his company into wastewater and water treatment work. In the 1980s, condominium construction along Alabama's coast and the Florida Panhandle propelled the company to a new level. Expanding into new geographical markets, offices were established in Orlando, Atlanta, Nashville, and Raleigh. Among its many noteworthy construction projects were the concrete frame for the Georgia Dome, the Bell South Headquarters in Nashville, and the Georgia Aquarium. The company was ranked the largest healthcare company in the nation five out of the last nine years.

Brasfield & Gorrie has had a tremendous impact on Birmingham and the UAB campus, building the new Collat School of Business, the first named school at UAB; the North Pavilion of UAB Hospital; UAB Women & Infants Center; Hazelrig-Salter Radiation Oncology building; UAB Medicine's Gardendale Freestanding Emergency Department and Medical Office building, Stadium Trace Medical Office building, and UAB Medical West; UAB Dining Commons; and the 16th Street Parking deck. Brasfield & Gorrie has also renovated portions of the Alabama Organ Center/Legacy of Hope building, Sterne Library, Women & Infants iMRI suite, and Wallace Tumor Institute.

The University of Alabama System Board of Trustees recently approved UAB's naming of its new engineering building as Frances and Miller Gorrie Hall to honor the immeasurable contributions of Gorrie and his wife Frances and the entire Gorrie family. This new $53 million investment in engineering will provide a world-class learning environment to educate and train future leaders in engineering fields and have a transformative impact on recruitment and retention of top faculty, development of new technologies and entrepreneurial ventures that drive robust economic development, and the school's increased national competitiveness and prominence.

Gorrie has served on the Advisory Board of the UAB Civil, Construction, and Environmental Engineering Department for 25 years and UAB President Advisory Boards as well as other boards including Colonial Properties Trust, ACIPCO, Metropolitan Development Board, Economic Development Partnership of Alabama, Alabama Symphony, and McWane Center Foundation. He previously served on the boards of AmSouth Bank, Business Council of Alabama, Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, United Way, Medical Center East Foundation, Baptist Medical Centers Foundation, Auburn Building Science Advisory Board, and Samford University Board of Overseers. Gorrie and Frances founded a school in Atlanta to serve children with learning disabilities, and served as board chairman for fourteen years.

Gorrie is a member of the Alabama Engineering Hall of Fame, the Alabama Business Hall of Fame, the Birmingham Business Hall of Fame-Downtown Kiwanis Club, the Alabama AGC Construction Hall of Fame, and the Alabama Academy of Honor. UAB THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA AT BIRMINGHAM

Dear UAB Graduate,

What an incredible day – you are now an official University of Alabama at Birmingham graduate! I hope you celebrate BIG! On behalf of the UAB National Alumni Society, I want to personally congratulate you on your remarkable achievement and welcome you to the UAB NAS. You join more than 150,000 graduates around the globe and are an important member of our growing Alumni Family.

Today marks an important watershed moment – one that you will remember for years to come. As you reflect back to this time, you will likely remember how COVID impacted your studies, how you witnessed private industry space travel, UAB's storybook return of our beloved football program, or our American Athletic Conference invitation. However, the one thing that will be forever etched in your memories, will be the day you graduated from UAB.

Engage with us on our social media platforms Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter (@uabalumni). This is an easy way to gain insight, network, and be informed on all things UAB. I also encourage you to "Be Seen In Green," stay connected with all the ways our awesome UAB Alums impact our world, and remain "Forever Faithful, Forever Loyal." On a personal note, I would also encourage you to remember to continue learning – it's a lifetime mission and who knows, your travels may lead you back to UAB for further learning opportunities. To learn about upcoming events and ways to further engage, check out our website at alumni.uab.edu.

Remember that you wherever you go, and however you apply yourself in the new world ahead of you, you will always carry UAB with you. Your studies and experiences while at UAB will contribute to your future achievements and the footprints you create in your professional journey. We encourage you to stay connected, take advantage of what our Alumni Society has to offer, and continue networking with fellow graduates. We want to share in your accomplishments! Finally, you may remember that in 2019, we changed our UAB National Alumni Society dues structure. The good news is that you are no longer required to pay dues, or "sign up," to "belong" – you are already "IN!"

I look forward to seeing you at events and/or games!

Go Blazers,

Tammi M. Thomas

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

HONORS DESIGNATIONS

The University of Alabama at Birmingham awards degrees with special designations to students who have achieved meritorious scholastic standing. Honor designations for undergraduates are based on grades reported prior to the completion of spring semester and may not reflect all earned honors. The designations are as follows:

Designation	Grade Point Average (A=4.00)
Summa Cum Laude	3.90 - 4.00
Magna Cum Laude	3.70 - 3.89
Cum Laude	3.50 - 3.69

An undergraduate student graduating with Summa, Magna, or Cum Laude honors is also accorded the privilege of wearing a gold honors cord.

The UAB Honors College brings together high-achieving intellectually curious students from all majors to form a close-knit community of emerging scholars. Honors students may follow a personalized curriculum or specialize in global and community leadership (GCL), science and technology (STH), or interdisciplinary arts and sciences (UHP). Honors students are recognized with "distinguished honors" for earning 18 hours of honors credit and "high distinguished honors" for 30 or more hours of honors credits. Students completing honors requirements wear a white cord and a UAB Honors College medallion.

School of Dentistry – The "With Honors" designation indicates at least a B average, completion of an approved plan of study and research, and completion of a relevant thesis.

Schools of Medicine and Optometry – Honors are given to those in the upper ten percent of their class based on overall grade point average. The designation Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude are not routinely awarded. Any graduate receiving such a designation is outstanding in ability and performance.

Veterans who have served in the United States Armed Forces wear a red, white and blue cord.

ACADEMIC

This is a list of candidates for graduation unless otherwise noted, prepared before final grades were reported, and inclusion therein does not constitute evidence of graduation.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA IN HUNTSVILLE

Monday the Thirteenth of December | Two Thousand Twenty-One

Propst Arena at the Von Braun Center

FALL COMMENCEMENT
Monday, December 13, 2021

NATIONAL ANTHEM

"The Star Spangled Banner"

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee proud UAH in loyalty we stand.
We give thee thanks for happy days beneath your guiding hand.
Often we will praise thy name as in the world we go.
We lift our voice our songs to sing all praise to UAH!

Arranged by C. David Ragsdale, D.M.A.

SIGN LANGUAGE

The interpreter will be positioned on the left of the stage.

PROGRAM

The commencement program is a roster of candidates, not an official list of graduates. Appropriate degrees and honors will be awarded to candidates who successfully complete all requirements by established deadlines. The posting of the earned degree on the official university transcript is the institution's affirmation of possession of the degree. Honors indicated in the program are based on grades for semesters completed prior to the last semester. Actual honors for all completed work will be subsequently calculated and will appear on the official transcript and diploma.

WILLIAM WILKERSON, PH.D.

Dean of the Honors College

10 a.m. SPEAKER

Dr. William Wilkerson was born in Orange County California. Despite an early passion for science, he was enticed into philosophy during his undergraduate years at Willamette University in Salem, Oregon, where he graduated in 1990. After a few years as a barista in Portland, he began graduate studies in philosophy at Purdue University, where he finished his Ph.D. in 1997.

Upon completion of his degree, he joined the Philosophy Department at UAH. By 2011, he was Professor and Chair of the Philosophy Department. His research and publications focus on philosophy of mind, the history of mid-century French philosophy (particularly existentialism and phenomenology), and sexual identity. The author of many articles in these fields, his work on the role of choice in sexual identity is regularly taught around the country in courses focusing on gender identity. He is the co-editor of two volumes: New Critical Theory: Essays on Liberation and Beauvoir and Western Thought from Plato to Butler. He is also the author of a book on sexual identity, Ambiguity and Sexuality. He loves working with students and received the UAH Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award in 2003.

In 2014, he was offered the position of inaugural Dean of the UAH Honors College. As Dean, he transformed and expanded the Honors curriculum to offer over 85 Honors courses in nearly 40 subjects each year, added Honors Faculty Fellows, increased extra- and co-curricular activities, and presided over enrollment growth from 450 Honors Students to nearly 1000, with a concomitant rise in average ACT from 29.5 to 31.5.

He and his husband of 20 years are happy to call Huntsville home, and spend spare time working on projects around their house and yard, traveling, and caring for their rescued Labrador retriever.

CARMEN SCHOLZ, PH.D.

Professor of Chemistry, College of Science

2:30 p.m. SPEAKER

Dr. Carmen Scholz was born in the Southeastern corner of what used to be East Germany. She received a Diploma (MS degree) in Polymer Chemistry and a doctorate in Chemistry from the University of Technology in Dresden.

In 1992, after the collapse of her country and after being awarded a fellowship by the Alexander-von-Humboldt Foundation, she came to the United States as a postdoctoral associate at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. She then accepted a position at Tokyo Science University, where she started to work on polymers for biomedical applications, a field of research that she would pursue throughout her career. After returning to the US and another postdoctoral stint at the University of Massachusetts at Lowell, she joined the Chemistry Department at UAH in 1998. Throughout her career at UAH she guided numerous graduate students to MS and PhD degrees and introduced interested undergraduate students to scientific, chemical research.

Dr. Scholz worked in academia on three different continents. She published over 70 scientific articles, six books, and she holds one patent. She is an executive editor for a polymer journal, and she serves the American Chemical Society in a number of capacities, currently also as the president of its local North Alabama section. Earlier this year she was honored as a fellow of the POLY division of the American Chemical Society.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The ceremonial mace of The University of Alabama in Huntsville was commissioned for the school's first commencement in 1973 and incorporates materials that represent Huntsville's history from pioneer times to the Space Age.

The shaft of the mace is fashioned of native chittamwood (Cotinus obovatus) harvested on Huntsville's Monte Sano mountain. It also contains a section of a cedar log recovered from the 1823 Huntsville City water system, thought to be the oldest public water system west of the Appalachians.

Topping the three-foot-long mace is a glass display created at NASA's George C. Marshall Space Flight Center. It is backed with velvet in the official blue of both the university and NASA. Housed within it are materials that were processed during NASA's Skylab Missions and that represent the then new field of space-based materials technology.

The mace includes a section of a spacecraft nose cone that was a gift to UAH from the U.S. Army's Redstone Arsenal. This nose cone was subjected to an ablative process that led to the development of protective heat shields for spacecraft.

Another feature of the mace is a ceramic ring in white, the university's second color. It displays the school's 1950 founding date and the 1969 date when UAH became an autonomous campus as a member of The University of Alabama System.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

American universities adhere to the official Academic Costume Code adopted in 1895. It describes the styles of gowns, hoods, and faculty colors that symbolize the wearer's academic discipline and rank. Bachelor's gowns are the most simple, featuring a pleated yoke and front fabric panels. Master's degree gowns are distinguished by unusual sleeves, each of which has a long rectangular piece of cloth on the backside that dangles to the wearer's knees. Doctors wear the most elaborate of all academic gowns, as befits their status at the highest level of scholarship. Fuller and more flowing than master's or bachelor's gowns, doctors' gowns have distinctive billowy, bell-shaped sleeves, front facings of velvet, and three bars of velvet across the sleeves.

FACULTY COLORS

The colors used to symbolize areas of study are referred to as "faculty colors" and trace their history to the Middle Ages when color and costume conveyed to the mostly illiterate populace visual messages about rank and occupation. Colors are displayed on doctor's gowns, edging of hoods, and tassels on caps.

HOODS

Hoods are lined with the official school colors to indicate where the wearers earned their degrees. Hood bindings or edgings are of velveteen and indicate field of study using faculty colors.

MORTARBOARDS AND TAMS

The origin of the mortarboard is subject to speculation, but some suspect the guild and apprentice systems of the Middle Ages. Then, during the construction of Europe's great cathedrals, master workers would mix mortar on similarly shaped boards. Hence, the mortarboard came to be associated with someone who had mastered the knowledge and skills necessary for his trade. Today, Ph.D.s often choose a soft velvet tam instead of the traditional mortarboard.

TASSELS

Colored threads have been part of academic costume since 1340 at Oxford, where students were compelled to adhere to strict rules of dress and maintain their everyday hoods by mending them with the color of thread representing their faculties. The use of colored threads to indicate field of study survives in the colored tassels suspended from graduates' mortarboards. Doctoral tassels are shorter and made of metallic or gold-colored threads.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

"The Star Spangled Banner"

Oh say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee proud UAH in loyalty we stand.
We give thee thanks for happy days beneath your guiding hand.
Often we will praise thy name as in the world we go.
We lift our voice our songs to sing all praise to UAH!

Arranged by C. David Ragsdale, D.M.A.

SIGN LANGUAGE

The interpreter will be positioned on the left of the stage.

PROGRAM

The commencement program is a roster of candidates, not an official list of graduates. Appropriate degrees and honors will be awarded to candidates who successfully complete all requirements by established deadlines. The posting of the earned degree on the official university transcript is the institution's affirmation of possession of the degree. Honors indicated in the program are based on grades for semesters completed prior to the last semester. Actual honors for all completed work will be subsequently calculated and will appear on the official transcript and diploma.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The ceremonial mace of The University of Alabama in Huntsville was commissioned for the school's first commencement in 1973 and incorporates materials that represent Huntsville's history from pioneer times to the Space Age.

The shaft of the mace is fashioned of native chittamwood (Cotinus obovatus) harvested on Huntsville's Monte Sano mountain. It also contains a section of a cedar log recovered from the 1823 Huntsville City water system, thought to be the oldest public water system west of the Appalachians.

Topping the three-foot-long mace is a glass display created at NASA's George C. Marshall Space Flight Center. It is backed with velvet in the official blue of both the university and NASA. Housed within it are materials that were processed during NASA's Skylab Missions and that represent the then new field of space-based materials technology.

The mace includes a section of a spacecraft nose cone that was a gift to UAH from the U.S. Army's Redstone Arsenal. This nose cone was subjected to an ablative process that led to the development of protective heat shields for spacecraft.

Another feature of the mace is a ceramic ring in white, the university's second color. It displays the school's 1950 founding date and the 1969 date when UAH became an autonomous campus as a member of The University of Alabama System.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

American universities adhere to the official Academic Costume Code adopted in 1895. It describes the styles of gowns, hoods, and faculty colors that symbolize the wearer's academic discipline and rank. Bachelor's gowns are the most simple, featuring a pleated yoke and front fabric panels. Master's degree gowns are distinguished by unusual sleeves, each of which has a long rectangular piece of cloth on the backside that dangles to the wearer's knees. Doctors wear the most elaborate of all academic gowns, as befits their status at the highest level of scholarship. Fuller and more flowing than master's or bachelor's gowns, doctors' gowns have distinctive billowy, bell-shaped sleeves, front facings of velvet, and three bars of velvet across the sleeves.

FACULTY COLORS

The colors used to symbolize areas of study are referred to as "faculty colors" and trace their history to the Middle Ages when color and costume conveyed to the mostly illiterate populace visual messages about rank and occupation. Colors are displayed on doctor's gowns, edging of hoods, and tassels on caps.

HOODS

Hoods are lined with the official school colors to indicate where the wearers earned their degrees. Hood bindings or edgings are of velveteen and indicate field of study using faculty colors.

MORTARBOARDS AND TAMS

The origin of the mortarboard is subject to speculation, but some suspect the guild and apprentice systems of the Middle Ages. Then, during the construction of Europe's great cathedrals, master workers would mix mortar on similarly shaped boards. Hence, the mortarboard came to be associated with someone who had mastered the knowledge and skills necessary for his trade. Today, Ph.D.s often choose a soft velvet tam instead of the traditional mortarboard.

TASSELS

Colored threads have been part of academic costume since 1340 at Oxford, where students were compelled to adhere to strict rules of dress and maintain their everyday hoods by mending them with the color of thread representing their faculties. The use of colored threads to indicate field of study survives in the colored tassels suspended from graduates' mortarboards. Doctoral tassels are shorter and made of metallic or gold-colored threads.

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA

PREAMBLE

The people of Alabama have vested full management and control over the "state university" in a "board of trustees" (Ala. Const. Art. 14, Sec. 264); the Legislature of the State of Alabama has provided that "the trustees heretofore appointed from the different congressional districts of the state under the provisions of Sec. 264 of the Constitution," and their successors in office, as a body corporate and has identified and named the corporation "The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama" (Code of Alabama, 1940, Title 52, Sec. 486). In order to more effectively manage and control the "state university," in order to provide for a definitive, orderly form of governance, and in order to secure and continue a responsive, progressive, and superior institution of higher education, the board of trustees hereby does promulgate and adopt these Bylaws.

ARTICLE I

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The entire management and control over the activities, affairs, operations, business, and property of The University of Alabama System (hereinafter referred to as the "University") shall be completely and absolutely vested in The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"); however, upon general or specific authorization or delegation made or provided for in these Bylaws, the Board may exercise its management and control by and through such officers, officials, committees and agents as may seem fit and proper.

SECTION 1. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD.

The Board consists of the Governor of the State of Alabama, ex-officio, who serves by virtue of the respective office, three members elected by the Board from the congressional district in which the Tuscaloosa campus is located, and two members elected by the Board from each of the other congressional districts in the State of Alabama, as those congressional districts were constituted on January 1, 2018.

SECTION 2. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE.

The Governor shall serve only while holding the office of Governor. Elected Trustees shall hold office for a term of six years, commencing on the date of their election except as modified below. When the term of any Trustee shall expire, or in case of a vacancy by death or resignation of a Trustee, or from any other cause, the remaining Trustees shall elect a successor by secret ballot; provided, that any Trustee so elected shall hold office from the date of his or her election until his or her confirmation or rejection by the Senate, and, if confirmed, until the expiration of the term for which elected and until his or her successor is elected, or, in the case of a vacancy, for the unexpired term for which he or she was elected and until his or her successor is elected. If the Senate should reject the name of any Trustee, the remaining Trustees shall thereupon elect Trustees in the stead of those rejected. Neither the existence nor continuation of a vacancy in the office of a Trustee shall serve to impair or hinder any provisions of these Bylaws or the validity of the operations and actions of the Board by virtue of that vacancy alone. A Trustee shall not serve more than three consecutive full six (6) year terms on the Board. Other than as described above, no Trustee shall be removed from office except for cause, and then only by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of Trustees (Elected and ex officio) then holding office, with notice and an opportunity to be heard provided.

SECTION 3. CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Congressional districts rom which members are appointed shall be as those districts were constituted on January 1, 2018.

SECTION 4. RETIREMENT AND TRUSTEE EMERITUS STATUS.

Each elected Trustee shall retire from the Board at the annual meeting following that Trustee's seventieth-fifth birthday. Any elected member who retires or who is not reelected may be designated by the Board as a Trustee Emeritus. Such designation shall confer no responsibilities, duties, rights, or privileges as such but shall constitute recognition of services and experience and will publicly acknowledge that person as particularly suited for counsel and advice to the Board. The Board encourages the availability of Emeriti Trustees for such counsel and advice and may request special services of them.

SECTION 5. COMPENSATION OF TRUSTEES.

I. Introduction

The Bylaws of The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama (herein called Board), at Article IV, Section 3, provide for a standing committee designated as the Finance Committee (herein called Committee). The Committee's role is primarily advisory to the Chancellor and the Board, unless otherwise provided by the Board. It is expected that the Committee will meet periodically at regular meetings of the Board, and on other occasions as deemed necessary by the Chancellor or the Board.

II. Objectives

The purpose of these operating guidelines is to provide a mechanism through the Office of the Chancellor to assist the Board in its policymaking role and in those business and financial matters requiring Board action on matters in which the Board has expressed a desire to be kept fully informed. The Chancellor shall review information and make recommendations to the Committee in the following areas:

A. Establishment and implementation of financial policies and objectives of the University;

B. Levying of student tuition and fees;

C. Review and approval of legislative requests for appropriations; both Operating & Maintenance as well as Capital, annual budgets, and midyear budget changes;

D. Approval of all loans, borrowing and the issuance of bonds;

E. Review and advise regarding long-range fundraising development plans;

F. Review of long-range financial plans;

G. Review of the financial aspects of new or modified policies at both the campus and System levels;

H. Approval of depositories, custodial arrangements, contractual arrangements and legal commitments of all kinds;

I. Review and approval of ~~annual technology plans~~technology contracts or projects that exceed~~ing~~ $750,000 ~~in individual expenditures or total project costs for hardware, software, services or related items~~.

In each of the areas set forth above, the Chancellor, through the Sr. Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration, the principal staff officer in these matters, shall cause the issuance of detailed plans for accomplishing the work of the Chancellor and the Board. Such detailed plans will be approved by the Chancellor and communicated to the Presidents and to the members of the Committee.

Before issuing any such detailed plans, the Chancellor or Sr. Vice Chancellor shall consult with and seek the advice and recommendations of the chief financial officers of each of the campuses.

To fulfill the above purposes, the Committee will work with the assistance of the Sr. Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration, as designated herein. The Chancellor wishes to review and present to the Board relevant financial functions indicated under this Section II.

III. Operation of the Committee

A. All financial issues of the Board are presented to the Committee.

B. Chancellor's staff prepares agenda for distribution to the Committee members prior to each meeting.

C. The Committee takes the official action for items requiring action by a Board Committee.

D. The Sr. Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration , or her/his designee, schedules working sessions, as needed, to permit time for full discussion of each item on the agenda.

E. In order for an item to appear on the agenda of the Committee, it should have been reviewed by the Chancellor, the Chair of the Committee or the President pro tempore.

(Adopted August 24, 1977 as Committee Guidelines; amended January 21, 1981, September 16, 1981, and April 21, 1995; amended and adopted as Board Rule December 5, 1977; amended November 19, 1999; November 14, 2008, and June 7, 2019.

406. Contracts on Behalf of the Board

I. Authority to Contract and Revisions of Authority

A. The Board must designate by Resolution those persons who are authorized to enter into a contract on behalf of the Board. These Resolutions should specify that only those persons named in the most current resolution for each division of the University of Alabama System can execute a contract on behalf of the Board.

B. The applicable Resolution for each division of The University of Alabama System should be revised in its entirety when any change is made, so that the most current resolution listing those persons who have been authorized to enter into contracts on behalf of the Board can be readily verified by the Secretary to the Board.

For purposes of this Rule, the term "contract" includes any agreement involving the expenditure of System, campus, or Hospital funds, whether termed an agreement, purchase order, or otherwise.

II. Contracts Benefiting Senior Administrators

Contracts originated by senior administrators,[3] and that may be perceived to benefit that senior administrator, shall be subject to an internal counter-signature process. The second signature should be from someone of sufficient authority, typically of equal or greater authority. For contracts originated by the President, the counter- signature shall come from the Chancellor. For contracts originated by the Chancellor, the counter-signature shall come from the President Pro Tem of the Board.

III. Conflicts of Interest

A. All authorized signatories of the Board shall participate in the electronic disclosure process required by Board Rule 106.

B. Regardless of whether an individual is specifically required to participate in the Board's electronic disclosure process, all persons authorized to sign contracts on behalf of the Board, campuses, Health System, Hospital, or any other related organization must disclose any conflicts of interest in any contract subject to their approval or signature in accordance with Board Rule 106 and 106.2, and have said contract approved by a senior administrator of equal or greater authority before the same is binding.

[3] Senior administrators are defined by Board Rule 106 as follows: "Senior administrators, for purposes of this Rule, are defined to be the Chancellor, other Board officers and Vice Chancellors of The University of Alabama System, the Presidents and Vice Presidents of each campus and any others so designated in writing by the Chancellor."

IV. Vendor Disclosure Form

Contracts with the Board shall include a "Vendor Disclosure Form" approved by the Office of Counsel. Such forms shall require disclosure by the proposed vendor of any known conflicts of interest on the part of any University officials involved in the contract or benefitting from the contract. Exceptions to this requirement shall be approved by the Office of Counsel.

V. Contracts Requiring Board Approval

A. Except as otherwise exempted below, the following contracts must be approved by the Board before the same are binding and effective:

i. All contracts for goods or services, or both, involving an expenditure of $1,000,000 or more for the term of the contract (including all option, renewal or extension periods) that were not procured through a competitive process; and

ii. All consulting or professional services contracts involving an expenditure of $250,000 or more for the term of the contract (including all option, renewal or extension periods), regardless of whether the contracts were procured through a competitive process.

B. The following contracts are exempt from this requirement:

i. Contracts that are otherwise required to be approved by the Board, such as construction and information technology contracts;

ii. ~~Contracts that are otherwise required to be approved by the UAB Health System Board;~~

iv. Contracts with ~~publically~~publicly regulated utilities;

v. Sponsored research grants and contracts, including associated subcontracts;

vi. Contracts with related organizations that have an existing affiliation or joint operating agreement with the Board, or are otherwise incorporated as a university healthcare authority authorized by the Board.

VI. Heightened Review of Certain Contracts

The Heightened Review Process provides for the System-level review and approval of certain contracts in lieu of Board approval. Contracts subject to and approved by this process must be approved by the Chancellor, or his or her designee, before the same are binding and effective. Contracts described in paragraph V.A. above, and not otherwise exempted pursuant to paragraph V.B., are eligible for review and approval through the Heightened Review Process if they also involve:

A. Circumstances of unusual and compelling urgency (as determined by the Chancellor and Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration, after consultation with the President pro tempore, Chair of the Finance Committee, Chair of the Legal Affairs Committee, as well as the Chair(s) of any Committee(s) to which the subject contract relates);

B. Goods or services, or both, in support of or relating to University Hospital; or

C. Direct provision of liability or property insurance, or compensation and welfare benefits to employees of the System office or employees or students of the campuses of the UA System, including contracts for the provision of life, disability, health (including student health plans), dental or vision insurance, or retirement, deferred compensation or other arrangement for supplemental benefits or pay not otherwise covered by Board Rule 302.

The System Office shall maintain a form for such submissions and approvals, and will provide the Board quarterly reports of contracts approved through the Heightened Review Process.

VII. Quarterly Reports of Competitively Awarded Goods or Services Contracts Over $1 Million

All campus or Hospital contracts for goods or services, or both, procured through a competitive process and involving an expenditure of funds of $1,000,000 or more for the term of the contract (including all option, renewal or extension periods) shall be reported quarterly to the Finance Committee in a format with sufficient detail for effective review. Contracts that are subject to approval or have been previously approved by the Board may be excluded from the report.

VIII. Information Technology Contracts or Projects

A. Notwithstanding the requirements for equipment and facilities projects governed by Board Rule 415, Board approval is required for all information technology contracts or projects[4] involving an expenditure of $750,000 or [4] A technology project includes multiple related contracts for hardware, software, training, contractual services, etc. For example, a single technology project could include a $200,000 contract for hardware, more for the term of the contract or project (including any extensions, renewals, upgrades or expansions to existing technology contracts or projects) regardless of the source of funds. Information technology contracts or projects approved pursuant to this rule shall be implemented in accord with established Board procedures.

B. Annual ~~campus~~ information technology plans shall be reviewed and approved by the Board. Contracts or projects specifically included in the approved plans will not require separate Board approval unless the terms of the contract change after the plan is approved by the Board. Any renewals or extensions of existing contracts or upgrades or expansions of existing projects must be included in these plans.

B. ~~Notwithstanding the requirements for equipment and facilities projects governed by Board Rule 415, Board approval is required for all information technology contracts (and any extensions, renewals, upgrades and expansions to existing technology contracts) that exceed $750,000 in individual expenditures in a fiscal year, regardless of the source of funds, and which have not been included in a Board-approved technology plan. a $300,000 contract for software, and a $300,000 contract for training. Even though each individual contract does not exceed $750,000, the cost of the entire project does exceed $750,000. Therefore, the entire technology project should be approved.

ADVANCES IN RESEARCH

STUDY SUGGESTS INCREASING MODERATE ACTIVITY COULD CUT STROKE RISK 40 PERCENT

New findings from a national cohort study published in the Journal of the American Medical Association showed completing at least 150 minutes of moderate to vigorous aerobic exercise a week can reduce the risk of stroke, especially in older adults.

The report involved Black and white participants who were enrolled in the Reasons for Geographic and Racial Differences in Stroke, or REGARDS study, based in the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Public Health.

ENGINEERING TEAM DEVELOPS PROCESS TO MAKE IMPLANTS SAFER

An interdisciplinary team of researchers at the University of Alabama at Birmingham have developed a new plasma-enabled process that could limit the proliferation of toxins from implants into a patient's bloodstream. The team, led by Vinoy Thomas, Ph.D., associate professor in the UAB School of Engineering's Department of Mechanical and Materials Engineering, recently published findings in the ACS Applied Materials & Interfaces journal.

In the article, the authors explain that a major challenge of developing nanoparticle-modified biomedical implant material is to stably attach metallic nanoparticles on different surfaces — particularly polymer surfaces.

SMALLER AIRWAYS INCREASE COPD RISK FOR WOMEN

More than 15 million Americans have COPD, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. According to a large, multicenter study led by the University of Alabama at Birmingham published in the journal Radiology, researchers found that even among adults who have never smoked, or who have smoked fewer than 100 cigarettes in their lifetime, lung airways were smaller in women, which can lead to a higher risk for lung disease.

STUDY SHOWS PANDEMIC INCREASED DEPRESSION, ANXIETY IN DENTAL WORKERS

Research published in the Journal of the American Dental Association involving faculty from the University of Alabama at Birmingham's School of Dentistry found that dental health care providers reported anxiety and depression symptoms during peaks of transmission among the public during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The study, titled "U.S. Dental Health Care Workers' Mental Health During the COVID-19 Pandemic," is the first known United States study to evaluate the mental health of practicing dentists and dental hygienists during the pandemic.

NSF FUNDING WILL LEAD TO BETTER GLOBAL CLIMATE MODELS

Dr. Shanhu Lee, Professor of Atmospheric and Earth Science, received a three-year $500,000 grant from the National Science Foundation (NSF) for an urban site study in Houston, TX. UA RESEARCH ENTERPRISE ENJOYED REMARKABLE YEAR

The portion of faculty members engaged in externally funded research was the most in UA history during the last academic year. Also, faculty members honored for their careers in research and scholarly activities reached a historic high last year. In fiscal year 2021, 38% of the 2,025 members of UA's faculty engaged in externally funded research, the eighth straight year of increased externally sponsored awards. In the same time period, UA faculty received a record 553 lifetime honorific awards from national and international award-granting associations or agencies. In all, sponsored awards brought $171 million to the University in fiscal year 2021, and research and development expenditures, a measure of output on previously funded awards, jumped 36% to $129.5 million. Submissions of grant proposals to funding organizations were up during the year with proposals seeking nearly 37% more in funding than requested in 2020.

Part of the United States Department of Transit Administration's $1.66 billion initiative to invest in 150 bus fleets and facilities across the country, UA's effort will be unique in adding research of electric transit vehicles. Traffic and engineering researchers affiliated with the Alabama Transportation Institute and the Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies will install sensors that allow a first-of-its-kind study of how electric vehicle technology behaves and can be optimized in a transit setting.

UA RESEARCHER INVESTIGATED DRIVERS OF ANTARCTIC ICE RETREAT

An investigation of how an Antarctic ice sheet melted thousands of years ago will improve contemporary climate models and projections of rising sea level, according to a recently published study with contributions from UA. The research team analyzed sediment samples from the seafloor near part of the ice sheet in the Amundsen Sea. Building a fuller picture of the ice sheets' behavior in the past, especially during major events in global climate change, will provide information for predictive models of ice stability and global sea-level rise, which will ultimately impact populated coastal areas in Alabama and the northern Gulf of Mexico.

UA RESEARCHERS CONTRIBUTED TO STARTUP OF DARK MATTER DETECTOR

Three faculty from the UA department of physics and astronomy are among 250 scientists and engineers from 39 institutions collaborating on the LUX-ZEPLIN, or LZ, experiment led by Lawrence Berkeley National Lab at the Sanford Underground Research Facility in South Dakota. The uniquely sensitive dark matter detector passed a check-out phase of startup operations and delivered its first results. The experiment may lead to the detection of dark matter particles.

UA RESEARCHERS DEVELOPED WAY TO TEST WATER FOR METAL POLLUTANTS

Research involving UA created an easier way to detect harmful levels of heavy metals in water, which could help improve human health by boosting detection efforts by regulatory agencies, water utilities and commercial fishing. The new analytical method for detecting harmful levels of heavy metals such as cadmium, mercury and lead was created by combining chemical array sensing methods developed at UA with polymer synthesis capabilities at the University of Southern Mississippi.

UA, HARVARD RESEARCHERS IDENTIFIED POTENTIAL PARKINSON'S THERAPEUTIC

Researchers at UA were part of a national investigation that identified a new candidate therapeutic target for Parkinson's disease, according to recently published results. UA RESEARCHERS STUDY GULF COAST SEVERE WEATHER COMMUNICATIONS

A new study by a team of professors from the College of Communication and Information Sciences examines the effectiveness of public risk messaging to help residents along the Gulf Coast stay safe during hurricanes and other extreme weather events. Understanding how the public receives and acts upon severe weather alerts and warnings can help emergency managers craft the most effective messages to save lives. The team will focus on the three southern-most emergency management areas of Mississippi and the two southern-most areas in Alabama.
